The staff of the Grace Lynn Centre has been making sandwiches and buying fruit and granola bars for the 30 people who are OAT clients. This means the clients are receiving Opioid Agonist Therapy to help battle addiction. They see a Northern Health OAT nurse every day. About a year ago we were asked if we could provide a simple sandwich and a piece of fruit 4 days a week and fruit and granola bars for Fridays. The program started with 20 people and is now at 30 people. The food has been really helpful to the people experiencing addiction and we want to continue. We have received funding through the Wrinch Memorial Foundation and donations from Jocelyne McLean's comedy night proceeds, BVCU and RDKS, but this is still several thousand dollars short of what it takes to run this program for a year! We are looking for financial donations. We are looking for food donations of meat, cheese, mayonnaise, fruit and granola bars. We are getting some bread from the Skeena Bakery but could use more.
