WORLD PIANO DAY

MARCH 29TH

Quote of the Week

Being a nerd, which is to say going too far and caring too much about a subject, is the best way to make friends I know.

- Sarah Vowell

MAR

31

This Week

March 31. On this day in 1928, Gordie Howe—one of hockey's greatest-ever players—was born in Floral, Saskatchewan. Known for both his scoring ability and his toughness (his nickname was Mr. Elbows), a New York sports writer coined a phrase about him: a Gordie Howe hat trick. This is when a player collects a goal, an assist and a fight in the same game. Recently, a slogan inspired by Gordie Howe, "Elbows Up", became popularized in Canada as resistance to Donald Trump's tariffs and threats against the country. Canadian actor Mike Myers launched the movement when he wore a "Canada Is Not For Sale" t-shirt on Saturday Night Live, looked into the camera, pointed to his raised elbow and mouthed the words, "Elbows up."

Remuneration	$40-$50/hour depending on experience
Location	Hazelton

Must be willing and able to travel for some meetings if needed. Flexible hours required. Occasional evening/early morning/weekend meetings.

Position

The ROAM Local Network Coordinator is a part-time contract role. The role supports the Local Working Group at Wrinch Memorial Hospital with its participation in the Rural Obstetric and Maternity Sustainability Program (ROAM). The Coordinator helps animate the local team's maternity sustainability goals by providing coordination and administrative support; fostering collaborative partnerships; and liaising with physicians, nurses, health care practitioners, hospital and health authority administrators, RCCbc, UBC, and representatives from other organizations and communities. The Coordinator reports to the Local Clinical Lead(s). The Rural Coordination Centre of BC (RCCbc) funds the contract on behalf of the Local Working Group.

The Rural Obstetric and Maternity Sustainability Program is funded by RCCbc and aims to improve and support rural obstetric, surgical and maternity programs and services and enhance rural health care.

Key Responsibilities & Duties

- Be the primary contact for practitioners within the local and wider ROAM network
- Be the primary liaison with the RCCbc office
- Be the primary administrative liaison with associated organizations across the health care system
- Collaborate and communicate with the ROAM Network (RCCbc staff, clinical leads, other Local Network Coordinators, etc.) through meetings, email, and online communication platforms
- Coordinate local support for the ongoing ROAM and community initiatives, including, but not limited to, network development, clinical coaching, continuous quality improvement, knowledge translation/exchange and relationship building with local First Nations and Métis populations
- Coordinate, attend, and support ROAM Working Group meetings and initiatives
- Participate in regular check-in meetings with the Clinical Lead(s)
- Participate in the regular RCCbc hosted Local Network Coordinator meetings
- Assist practitioners within the Local Working Group with duties/initiatives including coordinating meetings as requested by the local team, documenting meetings and following up on action items, booking travel and accommodation, scheduling assistance, organizing catering as needed, rooms or Zoom/MS teams lines for network activities, and tracking any claim forms required for activities
