Fun Fact

Chocolate chip cookies were invented in 1938 by Ruth Wakefield when she was at the Toll House Inn Massachusetts. She ran out of baking chocolate and decided to experiment by adding chopped chocolate to her cookie dough, not expecting this chocolate to stay whole. Her delicious experiment was to become one of the world's most popular cookies, including Chocolate Chip Cookie dough ice-cream.

On This Day

In 1935, Parker Brothers began marketing the famous board game MONOPOLY, but the original roots go all the way back to 1903. Elizabeth Magie created and patented a game called The Landlord's Game, which was designed to teach players about land value tax and the weakness of private land monopolies. The Parker Brothers bought the rights to Magie's patent for $500. This board game is a family favorite today.
